New York Stock Market

New York, January 24,-The in-terest of the financial community today converged largely around the $60,000,000 issue of New York City 41-4 per cent, bonds. Dealings in the at the highest prices yet recorded and loreshadowed a most successful out-come. The number of bids was in exriptions was probably several times eater than the amount offered. The gratifying feature of the offer-rom the viewpoint of the bankwas the large number of foreign French financial interests were to be especially prominent udgment of impartial observers, must redound to the credit of the municipalapathetic on a very light vol-t business. Prices moved irwith the tendency towards further re action, but by midday many carry usses were recovered. Trading con-linued dull throughout the rate ses-the overshadowing feature of that department; transactions in the new issue amounted to $3,790,000 out of a total par value of $6,016,000.

the list eased off with a dull and unsettled closing.

The image of money to this centre to-day was smaller than has recently been the case, but the banks continued to gain in operations with the Subtreasury and in receipts from the interior. No change in rates for money on time or call was reported.

Trading in the new city bonds was the overshadowing feature of that department, transactions in the new issue amounted to $2.700,000 out of a total balance.

New Orleans, La., January 24.—Spot cotton firm and unchanged; middling, 14 15-16-5, Sales 1,650 bales and 900 to arrive. The market was dult, but steady, throughout the morning session. Toward the middle of the morning there was a slight sag, which put the active months within a point or two of yesterlay's close. This was due to offerings from the long side, Later the market strengthened again on reports of a continued good spot demand in the interior and on telegrams from New York stating that prominent ary goods hourses were claiming that thus far this year they had done a record-breaking business. Moderate trading steadled the market in the afternoon session. The market closed at a net advance of 14 13 points. Mrs. Atkins, Accidentally Shot by Her Brother, Dies in Hospital.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Charloitesville, Va., January 24.—Mrs. Fannie Atkins, who was accidentally shot ten days ago by her brother, Lewis Martin, of Culpeper, died last night at the University Hospital, and the remains were sent to her home, five miles from Orange for interment. Her husband, H. S. Atkins, and two children survive.

The shooting occurred at Martin's home, in Culpeper, where Mrs. Atkins had gone on a visit with her son, aged twelve years. The boy, who was seated in his mother's lan, asked his uncle how he operated a repeating gun. In some unexplained manner the weapon was discharged, the load entering Mrs. Atkins's abdomen and lodging in the hip. A part of the load glanced down the boy's left arm and shattered his elbow. He is in a different ward in the hospital, and has not been told of his mother's death. Mrs. Atkins was before her marriage Miss Fannie Martin, of Unionville, Orange county.
